

What should I wear to dance classes?

Comfy clothes — think jeans and a tee with old sneakers. Nothing too grippy, so you can slide and spin.

Do I need a partner to join a class?

No, you don't need to come with a partner. We rotate in class, so everyone dances with everyone.

Do I need any dance experience to start?

No prior dance experience needed. We start from absolute scratch and work at a pace to accommodate everyone.

What classes do you offer?

We teach Lindy Hop, a partnered dance done primarily to big band swing and jazz music.

Where are your classes held?

- Monday nights in Inglewood
- Tuesday nights at Fremantle
- Wednesday nights in Duncraig

How much do classes cost?

Drop-in is $20, or you can buy a class pass — 4 classes for $70, or 8 for $120.

What shoes are best for swing dancing?

Anything comfy that's not too grippy. You want to be able to slide and spin a little.

Do I need to bring anything to class?

A water bottle and a good attitude 😊

What if I don't have a partner — will I be paired up?

We rotate in class, so all the leads dance with all the follows.

What's the cancellation/refund policy if I miss a class or the block doesn't suit me?

We don't offer refunds, but you can always join the next block.

FAQ.

What will I learn in the beginner 6-week course?

The basics of Lindy Hop — connection, footwork, rhythm, and basic moves.

Can I join a beginner block partway through?

You can join on week 2, but after that you'll need to wait for the next block.

What happens after I finish the beginner block?

We have a 7:30pm improvers class you can join to keep learning.

Will I be ready to social dance after the beginner course?

Yes — you'll be able to enjoy a basic (but genuinely fun) social dance.

What are the prerequisites for intermediate classes?

Completion of all 6 weeks of beginners, and the ability to comfortably lead or follow all the moves taught in that block.

Can I repeat a beginner block instead of progressing to intermediate?

Absolutely — many people do it twice.

How much does a private lesson cost?

$80 per hour.

How long does a private lesson go for?

1 hour.

Can I book a private lesson without a partner?

Yes.

Where do private lessons take place?

Usually in your kitchen — or mine, though fair warning, I have chihuahuas.

Where can I go social dancing after finishing classes?

The Mustang Bar on Friday nights, or at a variety of socials run by different swing schools around Perth.

How do I contact you with questions before booking?

Via Facebook Messenger or email.
